The team at East Cut CBD assisted an elderly man by escorting him to the Embarcadero SAFE Navigation Center. The man's social worker expressed gratitude for their assistance.

Hospitality

Encampments in the district had a slight increase to 22.5 per day. The East Cut services team have reported that majority of the encampments are broken down before the afternoon. All longer term encampments are provided welfare checks and monitored to make sure there is a path of travel and continually ask if shelter is wanted.
